Customer Reviews

We live far away from all of my siblings and grandparents. We bought these blank board books so we could put in a picture of each relative and their name at the bottom. Every night, my son and I flip through the book to say "Good night, (insert name here)!" This way, whenever we do get to see our family again, they don't seem so much like a stranger to him! Great quality, but I WISH it had rounded corners instead of these straight edge corner.

I used these blank board books to make special books for my 2.5 year old son and for blog activities. These are very easy to use and make things with, and sturdy. A little glue (or if you've got an older child, make a book for a new baby by coloring pictures for them) and some photos and you can have a really neat book. My son has one with objects around the house, as well as one with family members. We used them for language development.

This blank board book can be used for anything! Craft lovers out there have to have one - the blank gives you SO much room for inspiration - the possibilities are endless...use your imagination! Great product!

Was exactly what I was looking for. Excellent to create your own book. We attached scrapbook paper and stickers to the book. The scrapbooks paper had to be attached with double sided tape in order for the book to remain somewhat flat when shut. I would not hesitate to purchase this exact product again should I need to make another board book.

I love this book. I took screenshots of my daughters favorite video then build a story around that video and put it on sticker paper and applied it to this book. It is her favorite thing to carry around her everywhere.

Bought this to use in making a Christmas pop-up book based on the White Christmas movie. It was very sturdy. This book was a big hit. It had people had asking how I did it.

These books are perfect for making memory books for my granddaughters. They are very well made and hold up very well.
