Four Brothers In Blue; Or, Sunshine And Shadows Of The War Of The Rebellion: A Story Of The Great Civil War From Bull Run To Appomattox

Synopsis

These letters, collected and transcribed by Captain Robert Goldthwaite Carter in the 1870s, are among the finest primary sources on the daily life of the Union soldier in the Civil War. Robert and his three brothers all saw action with the Army of the Potomac under its various commanders, Generals McClellan, Burnside, Hooker, Meade, and Grant. At times in pairs but often in neighboring units, they fought on the battlefields of Bull Run, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, the Wilderness, and Petersburg. --This text refers to the Paperback edition.

Customer Reviews

I was told this had info I needed about Antietam the area I have lived all my life. Interest story and first hand accounts of history from letters.

Very interesting and along with the interest in the Civil War, my great-grandfather was named and fought in some of the battles.
