Customer Reviews

Great price for a needed textbook, and a great book to have overall. This contains enough legal knowledge to help give the average person a solid base of understanding for things from contract law, leases, wills, etc. It won't make you a lawyer, but you'll be better equipped to read legal documents and know what you can, and can't, do. PROTIP: most textbooks barely change from edition to edition, so do a Google search of their table of contents, and if they match what you need compared to the syllabus, buy the previous edition and save!

This is one subject that anyone in the business field NEEDS to know. It is a law book, so yes, it reveals itself as being very bland and lack of illustrations. Law for all intents and purposes is very boring; as a result, this textbook is straightforward and unlike typical law curricular. It's not a question of what to do, but a question of when you know when to consult professional legal assistance. Good text, but a little expensive. Typical.

This book puts real estate law in laywoman's terms. It's easy to read, to understand, and to take notes with it.

Its a long book but the wording is easy to follow

I received my item promptly. Wear and tear was more than I would have liked but the item serves its purpose.
