Customer Reviews

I was disappointed with the book because a lot of the smells are similar. Nothing really stands out. The book is good quality and I like the story but the smells are not distinct enough. My daughter does not like it so I am trying it for my youngest. I would not recommend. It seems scratch and sniff books are hard to come by these days.

For a youngster it is hard to find where the smell is in the picture. The banana was the only accurate smell and even it was not strong enough for a toddler to distinguish. I had a book for my daughter that smelled amazing..but that was 20 years ago. Certainly they can do a better job with this book.

Daniel Tiger has been my daughter's absolute favorite character since she was a year old and she's turing three in two days. These books follow the series on PBS and that makes them really accessible to kids who watch the shows. Can't say enough good about Daniel Tiger.

Really disappointed with this book. Smells are really faint. I wish they made better scratch and sniff books. My son loved them as a toddler and I'm in search for more for my other child. Cute book though.

Great book bought bc my three year old likes Daniel tiger and she discovered scent books at the library the other day I haven't given to her yet but I tested on arrival and could smell items w light touch

My daughter loves Daniel Tiger! So this book was a special treat for her since it is scratch and sniff. Unlike other scratch and sniff books I've ordered all these stickers still smell! It is a really fun book to read.

Such a cute book! I really love how all of the Daniel Tiger books that are released tell stories directly out of the series (this one was the baking banana bread for mom episode). My only complaint is that some of the smells are really similar page to page.

The smells are barely noticeable at all except for 1 spot.
