Long-Distance Pigeon Racing

Synopsis

This authoritative book is aimed at all pigeon enthusiasts, particularly those who participate in racing them at distances greater than five hundred miles. It encourages the reader to view the humble pigeon in a different light, gaining a deeper appreciation of the enormous joy and satisfaction that can be gained from long-distance pigeon racing. In addition to the interviews with both British and Continental lofts, features covered include acquisition of stock, health and immunity, loft management, and pairing and exercising of the birds.

Customer Reviews

Very interesting. As any good book brings something into your head.

If u have been looking for an updated, more advanced analysis of pigeon keeping, This is it. Through interviews with proven (successful) racers the author asks it all from loft to feed, to breeding and racing. Excellent book, even if you live in the states the info is well worth it.
