Customer Reviews

Big Book of the Civil war is great help for anyone looking to travel to the various civil war historical sites around the country; providing address location for GPS guidance, listing places which provide food, lodging, with price points to expect for these services.

The book was great. A lot of history, information and pictures. Would have loved to have a book like this in my history class at school. A nice gift for any one who is a civil war buff.

This book was a surprise gift for Christmas. It is helpful because it also shows accommodations, restaurants and other points of interest around the various Civil War sites.
