This is a great series that my kids love 8 and 12. This book gave lots of historic info that was perfect for a 3rd-4th grade class project. It also was fun to read for an 8 year old who often refuses to do so!

I really like all the info about Wallace's journey and you really made me feel like I'm in the book acting it. I would like to know a little bit more about the story after Wallace's death. But overall great book!

I like it. It does have a feature that I don't like, which is frequent, flippant tag-on sentences at the end of paragraphs. I am no William Wallace historian, but I am a historian of sorts, and I can say that the history presented has the ring of good history.

Excellent for the young person! Easy read too. At times a bit violent but that is to be expected when talking about William Wallace and the period in which he lived. FREEEEEEDOM!!

Perfect read for my 12 year old boy
