Customer Reviews

For those who are concerned about the church and her seemingly inability to speak clearly and faithfully about ethical subjects this is a must read. Eugene Rogers has shown an ability to be compassionate, just, and clear all with an eye on the church and her savior. Eugene should be commended for taking the high road of discussion with odd partners as opposed to just another book with those he already agrees. Read this book!

This is a very complex book.....almost a text book but has some really good information in it.Good book!.
