Across Frozen Seas

Synopsis

In his third young adult title, John Wilson takes on the rich territory of the 1845 Franklin expedition. Cabin boy David Young travels aboard the ill-fated vessel the HMS Erebus from London, England, en route to Canada's frozen and uncharted north, and his adventures comes to a modern-day Dave Young in Humboldt, Saskatchewan, in a series of dreams.

Customer Reviews

Great story. I bought it with my 10 yr old son in mind as he is reading at 8th grade level. However I had to read it first to ensure no mature content was in it. I couldn't put it down. Very moral but there are some situations and character flaws prevalent that I put it away until about age 14. Historical value.
