This study went beyond my expectations! I loved that it went through the whole book of James verse by verse but broke it down in small enough pieces that our 9 yr old was able to follow along & get the discussion points. I highly recommend this study to any family looking for a study that will actually get you into the Word, get you talking and applying the truth!

We love this entire series. We started with Proverbs and it's a great study and conversation piece with our daughter. I highly encourage all Christian parents to take the time to use this material to get deeper in the word with their children. Treasure into eternity.

My children, age 13 and 14 and I are going through this study this summer. We are really enjoying it and will be buying others. May look in to a fall bible study for my son and his classmates thinking Proverbs!

These bible studies are fun to share with my daughter. They make great first bible studies for elementary school children and teach them how to study their bibles independently. This is the second one I have purchased.

I use this book as a devotion for my boys (7 and 10) a few times a week before school and we really enjoy it! It gives them questions to contemplate and is just the right length to keep their interest and attention.

I love this book series, great kids' bible study for home use. I have bought all other books in the series too, waiting for more to be published. I highly recommend it.

We are using this book for family devos! With 4 kids, ages 11-17, we needed a guide that was clear and concise. This is both! It's allowed for some real quality family time together. Love it!!
