I knew Buck, Dottie and Reba, before Reba was old enough to sing with them. I was a 12 year old boy who sat mesmerized by Dottie Rambo playing the red Gibson guitar on the platform of our United Pentecostal Campmeeting in Louisiana. At the time they traveled as the Gospel Echos. The Rambo's came to my local church several times in Westlake, Louisiana and the place would be packed. Dottie wrote some of the most anointed songs that have been written. They will be sung throughout the ages.

I just recently purchased the Legacy of Buck and Dottie Rambo at a Dottie concert. She stated that Buck Rambo wrote this book on his own without any input from her. I can believe it. Anyone that has ever heard Ms. Dottie sing, knows that the Spirit of God just flows from her in every song. Whether it be one that she wrote or just one that sings from another writer. He gives her some credit but not enough. A person can only believe that it is through her belief and faith in God that keeps her going through all of her health problems. Anytime you need an uplifting experience just read the book and pay attention to Dottie's unending never wavering faith in GOD.

Dottie Rambo is the most gifted songwriter of all time. I have read the Legacy of Buck and Dottie Rambo many times! I think and know God has used and continues to use Dottie and thank God for that! Buck talks underatedly about Dottie and should give her much praise. Dottie we love you write our book soon!!!!

This book merely scratches the surface of the career of the Rambos. It is a fair read for Rambos fans but told from Buck Rambo's narrative and therefore not enough emphasis is placed on Dottie Rambo's importance to the trio's success. Harmonies from The Singing Rambos trio have yet to be matched but without the stage presence, songwriting, musicianship, and persona of Dottie Rambo I don't think the Trio would have made national prominence. It's possible that Dottie was writing her own book and Buck didn't want to infringe on that.

Love the pictures of the family when they were younger. I get the impression Buck was not always honest with some of the facts in the book. Perhaps there would have never been a divorce had Buck really been the husband he portrayed himself to be; and if Dottie & Buck had not lost their first love.
