Synopsis

Winner of 19 Grammy Awards and a member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, Stevie Wonder has been a dominant figure in contemporary music for more than three decades. He shot to fame at the age of 12, astonishing music fans with his number-one hit, Fingertips Part 2. In the years since that jaw-dropping debut, Wonder has proved himself to be a star of rare talent, producing a string of hit singles including Superstition and You Are the Sunshine of My Life; as well as classic albums, making him one of the most successful artists of the 20th century. Blind from birth, Wonder has used his fame and talent to raise funds for charities and promote civil rights. Here, Sharon Davis, Wonder's former publicist, gives us an assessment of the career of one of music's indisputable geniuses.
