Customer Reviews

Great book....receipes are authentic, clear, very well illustrated, do-able and well worth doing....BUT be aware; the physical size of the book stocked and shipped by is a MINI, albeit complete, version of Parragon Books STANDARD version. Hence, disappointingly VERY DIFFICULT TO READ and not conducive to easily cooking up a tapas storm.

I enjoy reading this, it's often distracts me from my menu planning. It is an attractive book, with uniquely rounded corners and useful sturdy paper cover. (I prefer paperback for my cookbooks.) Nice photos, and excellent text (tho the print is a bit small).The introduction and recipes describe the meal/cultural context really well, so I feel comfortable making my own version of recipes with the ingredients I have. So far, only made 1 or 3 of the recipes and they seemed accurate as written, so I feel the book overall is reliable.

I ordered this as a present so haven't used the book myself. However when I saw it and the beautiful illustrations I knew I had made a good choice and wanted to buy another copy for myself!

I host a Tapas Night so am having fun with trying out the recipes here.

Super and easy tapas recipes with "regular" ingredients...no need for special shopping for these goodies...Have a tapa party!

A great addition to my small meals collection of cookbooks. Love it!

We shared our trip to Barcelona with all of my husband's staff by giving them this book (along with a bottle of Cava!) for Christmas. They all loved it.

many good ideas!
