Customer Reviews

Filled with fun facts and trivia about music and musical instruments plus illustrations of various cartoon animals making music in different ways this book will provide young readers with lots of enjoyment. From opera and Beethoven to one man bands and the folks who play spoons, there's information here on all types of music. Without becoming too detailed or boring, the author maintains the young reader's interest while hopefully making him/her wish to do more detailed reading in the future about some aspect of the topic.
