2017 Monets Passion: The Gardens At Giverny Wall Calendar

Synopsis

At his Giverny home outside Paris, Claude Monet (French, 1840-1926) indulged in his two favorite pastimes: painting and gardening. He created a living laboratory of color, light, and atmosphere, and his translation of these elements to his canvases made him the master of French impressionism. Photographer and horticultural designer Elizabeth Murray fell in love with Monet's gardens during her first visit in 1984. She joined in the restoration effort, and she returns regularly with her camera to record the gardens in all their radiance. Murray's firsthand knowledge of the grounds informs her photographs and descriptions in this calendar.

Customer Reviews

Ordered as a gift for someone who had recently visited the gardens; it was delivered a month earlier than I expected--great surprise.
